

District Managers: The 3 ways to win your week.

The District Manager's guide to an effective week and how Quorso + Microsoft Teams can help.

#1 Run smarter, better store visits.

- Focus on the top opportunities in each store.
- Log all actions your store teams take.
- Track the impact of every action.

How Quorso + Teams helps:

Automated prioritization of data and tasks.

Quorso prioritizes the top data alerts and tasks for each store, then shares them through Teams. So all your stores know exactly what to do.

Guided workflows.

Action plans are captured in Teams by Quorso's workflow, so you have a digital record of what all your stores are doing.

Real-time impact assessment.

Quorso tracks and measures the impact of every action, so you can see what works in real time and scale success across your area.

Stop the stress of searching through reports in the parking lot.

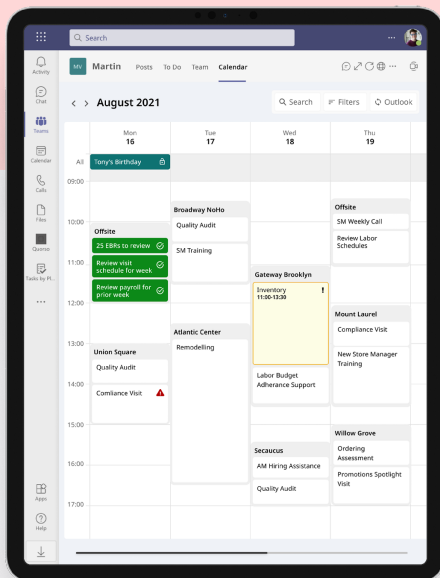

#2 Spend your week making a difference.

- Focus on the stores that need your help now.
- Plan your week carefully based on store performance.
- Manage and coach high performing stores (more) remotely.

How Quorso + Teams helps:

Schedule the perfect week.

Let Quorso intelligently suggest your weekly schedule and travel based on critical tasks outstanding, store performance and time since last visit.

Map your next visit.

If you have spare time, Quorso shows your next-best-store to visit... and what to discuss there.

Save time. Travel less. Achieve more.

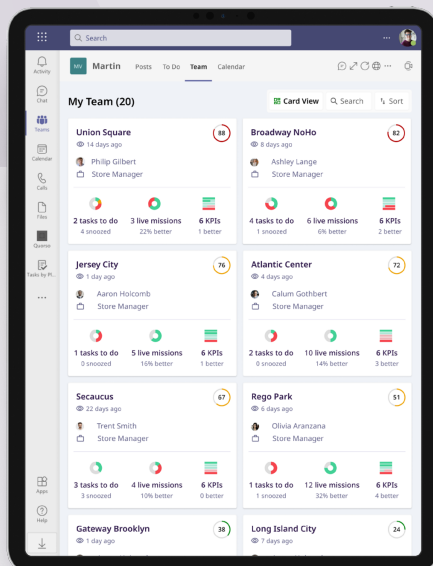

#3 Everything you need for business reviews.

- Understand how every area of your district is performing.
- Report emerging trends from stores to the center.
- Highlight your high and low performers.

How Quorso + Teams helps:

Real-time team report cards.

Quorso gives you full visibility of how each store and team member are performing, allowing you to coach continuously and celebrate successes.

Business impact assessment.

See how every action across your district is helping you hit your KPIs, plus get smart insights from Quorso on emerging trends from your stores.

No slides. No sweat.
No shouting (from your boss).

Quorso gives you team performance insights, constant support and operational tools to allow you to get more done. Find out more and win your week! www.quorso.com
